Once withdrawn, such record will not be used against the employee either as an argument before an arbitrator or under any other circumstances.

Article 19 – Contracting Out

- 1901 Work that is contracted out will not result in loss of job or layoff for any employees.

Article 20 – Layoff and Recall

2001 In the event of layoff, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their bargaining unit seniority, subject to the employee having the qualifications to perform the required work.

The Employer shall notify employees who are to be laid off one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the effective date of layoff or award pay in lieu thereof.

New employees shall not be hired where there are employees on layoff able to perform the normal requirements of the job.

2002 Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority where jobs become available, providing they are qualified to perform the required work. The Employer shall give notice of recall by registered mail. The employee shall keep the Employer advised at all times of her current address. The employee shall return to work within seven (7) working days from the time she received notice of recall, unless on reasonable grounds she is unable to do so.

2003 The Employer must not reduce the hours of individual employees or decrease the hours of a group of employees or all employees in the bargaining unit in the event of a shortage of work. All other layoff provisions of the Collective Agreement shall apply.

2004 Upon permanent layoff, the employee will be paid a separation allowance equal to ten (10) days per year of employment with the Employer. Senior employees may volunteer to take a voluntary layoff in place of the junior person with full eligibility for severance, provided those remaining are capable of performing the work.

2005 All current employees of MAHCP shall have job security and will have the opportunity of employment should MAHCP merge with a different Union or should the membership be absorbed into another Union through consolidation vote.

All matters relating to a successor Collective Agreement with a new union must be agreed to by the staff members in Unifor. The seniority of all employees shall be recognized and dovetailed within a new bargaining unit.

The current collective agreement will remain in force until its expiry unless and until it is replaced by a negotiated successor agreement with the new union. In the event that a new union is created, MAHCP recognizes Unifor's bargaining rights until a new union representing the current bargaining unit jurisdiction of Unifor is established.

There will be a representative from the bargaining unit on any merger/consolidation committee.

Notwithstanding the above, if an employee has his/her employment displaced by a merger/consolidation or dissolution of the MAHCP then the Employer shall pay severance pay of twenty-five (25) days for every year of service to a maximum of 400 days. This severance shall be in addition to pre-retirement leave under Article 1103, but members shall not be entitled to severance under Article 2004 under this clause.

Article 21 – Grievance and Arbitration

- 2101 Should a dispute arise between the Employer and an employee concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of this Agreement:
- 2102 Within fifteen (15) working days after the incident giving rise to the grievance (herein called the incident) becomes apparent, a written grievance shall be filed with the Executive Director.
- 2103
- a) Within five (5) working days after the grievance has been filed, the Executive Director shall investigate the matter and reply.
 - b) If not resolved, then said grievance shall be referred to the Association Board of Directors or Committee of the Board within ten (10) working days. The Board of Directors shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of the grievance.
- 2104 If the grievance is not resolved at the above step then the grievance may be submitted for arbitration.
- 2105 All grievances shall be considered and settled on their individual merits, and not dismissed by reason of any technicality. The time limits specified above may be extended by the mutual agreement of the parties as confirmed in writing.
- 2106 An incident shall be deemed to have become apparent at the time when a reasonable person might reasonably have become aware of it under actual reasonable circumstances.
- 2107 Nothing contained in this agreement shall preclude settlement of a dispute or grievance in any matter whatsoever by mutual agreement between the Employer and the union.
- In the event the arbitrator assigned in rotation is unable to hear the arbitration within ninety (90) days of the case being referred then the grievance shall be referred to the next arbitrator in rotation who can hear the case within the ninety (90) day time limit.
- 2109 The costs of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Employer and the union.

Article 22 – Discrimination/Harassment

- 2201 The parties to this agreement believe that every individual has the right to dignity and respect in the workplace. The responsibility of creating and preserving a safe and harassment-free environment is a collective one assumed by Employer and employees. The MAHCP will not condone or tolerate any form of harassment, bullying or violence within the workplace, whether it be by reason of age, religion, creed, race or colour, national origin, political or religious affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, place of residence, family relationships, political belief, source of income, physical or mental handicap, whether it be at the MAHCP office or off-site. No form of sexual or personal harassment shall be condoned. Such actions may result in discipline.
- 2202 The Employer and the union agree that no form of sexual harassment shall be condoned in the workplace or while off-site and performing her duties and it is further agreed that both parties will work together in recognizing and dealing with such problems should they arise. Situations involving sexual harassment shall be treated in strict confidence by both the Employer and the union.
- 2203 This Article is not intended to discourage or prevent an employee from exercising her/his rights under any applicable Human Rights legislation, and/or any other legal rights pursuant to any other law.
- 2204 By definition harassment is unwelcome, unwanted, and uninvited; it may be expressed verbally or physically; it is usually coercive, and it can occur as a single incident or on a repeated basis. It comprises actions, attitudes, language, or gestures, which the harasser knows or reasonably ought to know, is abusive, unwelcome, or wrong.
- 2205 Bullying and personal harassment are defined as deliberate actions, offensive, malicious, and/or cruel behaviour with the aim to humiliate, intimidate, undermine, or destroy the character or confidence of an individual or group of individuals. Bullying and personal harassment may include an abuse of power by one person or group over another that degrades an individual. Bullying behaviour is often persistent and part of a pattern, but it can occur as a single incident. It is usually carried out by an individual, who ought reasonably to have known that her/his actions are unwelcome and unwanted. It can also be an aspect of group behaviour. Context is important in understanding bullying, particularly verbal communications. There is a difference between friendly insults exchanged by long-time work colleagues and comments that are meant to be, or are taken, as demeaning. For the purposes of this Article, violence is defined as any physical assault or threat of physical assault occurring in the work environment.

2206 The MAHCP will not disclose a complainant's or respondent's name, or any circumstance related to a complaint, to anyone, except as necessary to investigate a complaint or take disciplinary/corrective action related to the complaint, or as required by law. All parties are reminded to keep all information confidential, except in the above circumstance.

- a) When a complainant believes that they have been subjected to harassment, bullying or violence, they are encouraged to clearly and firmly make known to the alleged harasser that the behaviour is objectionable and must stop. The parties recognize that in certain circumstances such action may not be appropriate or advisable.
- b) The complainant may ask the Union for their assistance in resolving the situation informally. Where the safety of any individual is compromised, the Employer shall be immediately informed. If the incident is successfully resolved at this stage, no further action shall be required.
- c) Where a complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant may file a formal complaint in writing to the Employer. The complaint must clearly state the facts giving rise to the complaint and refer to the appropriate section of this Article which is alleged to have been violated. The complaint must be filed in a timely manner from when the alleged incident occurred.
- d) The Employer shall examine the complaint and shall determine the timeliness and admissibility of the complaint under the circumstances and whether the complaint is frivolous or vexatious.
- e) In the event that a conflict exists between an employee and a member of management, an external investigator may be appointed.
- f) When it is determined that the complaint meets the criteria stated in d) above, they shall conduct a thorough, confidential investigation, and advise the complainant of their decision in writing within thirty (30) days of receiving the complaint.
- g) The decision of the Employer may be grieved by either party regarding any decision or penalty imposed as a result of an investigation conducted under this Article or in keeping with the intent of this Article to promote a harassment free workplace.
- h) Mediation may be used as an alternative approach to resolving complaints under this Article if it is done voluntarily on the part of both parties. Mediation will be held within thirty (30) days of the initial complaint being filed. If the mediation is unsuccessful, the complaint shall be redirected back to the Employer for investigation. Time limits may be extended by consent of all parties.

Article 23 – Responsibility Pay

2301 An employee temporarily assigned to perform substantial duties and responsibilities of a higher salary classification for at least one (1) entire shift shall be paid a rate in the higher salary range which is at least five percent (5%) higher than the regular basic salary to which she would otherwise be entitled, including when performing a job that is outside the bargaining unit.

Article 24 – UNIFOR Social Justice Fund

2401 The Social Justice Fund is an independent non-profit corporation and is an officially registered charitable foundation under the Income Tax Act. The Unifor Social Justice Fund is designed to aid in international development, through the relief of hunger, rebuilding, improved education, social infrastructures as well as to encourage self sufficiency.

The Employer agrees to deduct and submit on behalf of the employee to the Unifor Social Justice Fund an amount equal to $0.01 for each hour worked by all employees in the bargaining unit. However, for the purpose of deduction from the company's payroll the union will set a nominal monthly amount to be deducted from employees and remitted to the union. The amount shall be submitted no later than the 15th day of the month following the month in which the hours were worked. The Union will provide a letter on quarterly remittance.

Article 25 – Health and Safety

2501 The Employer shall institute and maintain all precautions to guarantee every worker a safe and healthy workplace and to protect the environment outside the workplace. The Employer shall comply with all applicable health and safety and environment legislation and regulations.

2502 The workplace shall be kept clean, well-ventilated and in sanitary condition in compliance with applicable Provincial Legislation and the employees shall cooperate with the Employer in this regard.

2503 Any employee injured while working on the job and therefore unable to finish his or her day's work shall be excused from work for the remainder of that day with no loss in pay, and shall not be considered as sick time.

2504 The Union shall appoint a workplace health and safety representative. The Employer shall post the name of this representative prominently in the workplace. This Union health and safety representative shall work in conjunction with an Employer-appointed representative to perform the following duties:

2505 The health and safety representative is entitled to take the following paid time off from his or her regular duties:

- a) one hour to prepare for each safety and health meeting with the employer
- b) the time required to attend each safety and health meeting with the employer
- c) the time required to attend workplace safety and health training in accordance with legislation
- d) such time as is necessary to carry out his or her duties as a representative

- 2506 The Employer shall protect all employees from violence or the threat of violence. Violence shall be defined as any incident in which an employee is abused, threatened or assaulted during the course of his/her employment. This includes the application of force, threats with or without weapons, severe verbal abuse and persistent sexual and racial harassment.
- 2507 The Employer shall provide employees with all necessary safety equipment and personal protection equipment for the safe performance of their jobs.
- 2508 Canadian law requires that any person exposed to hazardous materials in the workplace must be trained in Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System (WHMIS). The Employer will provide and pay for all necessary WHMIS training.

Article 26 – Reclassification Request

- 2601 Where an employee believes that there has been a material or substantial change in her job content since she/he was last classified, he/she shall be entitled to request a review of her/his classification.
- 2602 The Employer will examine the duties of the employee, compare them with job description and give a decision as to the validity of the request.
- 2603 If the decision in 2702 is not satisfactory to the employee, he/she may treat this request for change in classification as a grievance as defined in Article 21.
